Warrior Tech,
a St. Vrain Valley P-TECH
Introductions

Brian Young, Principal, Frederick High School
young_brian@svvsd.org / (303) 833-3533

Brandon Shaffer, Executive Director of P-TECH
shaffer_brandon@svvsd.org / 720-899-6193

Doug Strauss, Assistant VP, Academic Affairs,
Aims Community College

Sylvia Robinson, Communications & HR Program
Manager, Tolmar, Inc.

Joe Guiles, Head of Development, Agilent
Technologies
Send Us Your Questions!

Facebook Viewers:

- Submit your questions through the comment box below the video.

Website Viewers:

- Click “Ask a question to our hosts >>” to access a Google Form which will allow you to submit questions anonymously.
- *Important to note: When you click the link, you will be redirected out of the website page. It is a good idea to have the website open in two windows.
What is P-TECH?

“Pathways in Technology Early College High School”

- Partnership between K-12 public schools, community college, and industry partners
- Combine an associate degree, high school diploma, and real world experiences
- Up to 6 year program (9-14th grades)
College Partner

- Bio-Chemistry Associate of General Studies
- High School and College Credit
- College and High School Instructors
Industry Partners
Mentorships, Internships & Job Fair

- Mentorships
- Student internships
- Job Fair
Send Us Your Questions!

Facebook Viewers:

- Submit your questions through the comment box below the video.

Website Viewers:

- Click “Ask a question to our hosts >>” to access a Google Form which will allow you to submit questions anonymously.
- *Important to note: When you click the link, you will be redirected out of the website page. It is a good idea to have the website open in two windows.
Applications

- Applications are open from February 13 - March 6
- Fill out application online by visiting the Frederick High School website
- Applicants will be asked to submit 2 letters of recommendation from teachers
- Initial cohort of 35 students
- Seeking a diverse student group with a preference for first generation college students and a balance between male/female students
Parent-Student Contract

- Mandatory parent-student meeting (end of March)
- Overview of expectations and academic requirements
- Sign contract with Frederick High School about expectations and supports Student Supports

- Two week “bridging” course prior to official beginning of the school year
- Dedicated high school counselor
- Guided study
- After school tutoring
- Individualized plans
- Workplace field trips
- College field trips
Send Us Your Questions!

Facebook Viewers:

- Submit your questions through the comment box below the video.

Website Viewers:

- Click “Ask a question to our hosts >>” to access a Google Form which will allow you to submit questions anonymously.
- *Important to note: When you click the link, you will be redirected out of the website page. It is a good idea to have the website open in two windows.